

An eccentric programmer is haunted by a mysterious manuscript written in bird tracks. He pursues the tracks and their translation through a maze of hackers and the NSA, Artificial Intelligence, virtual reality and the ghosts of famous writers.

A book about books.

A family finds a mysterious bottle. Within the bottle, a book. Within the book, a story. And within the story, their own adventure.

Within the adventure waits a city where lives a beggar who became a duke, a rat who became a cat, a song that became a promise. Ghosts, assassins, kings and cobblers shift and dance across Clarence St. Elmo is gone to sea on a cursed ship destined to be sunk in the Sea of Time. His love awaits his return while voices from the future slyly pry for clues to a mysterious manuscript lost with Unicorn. While beyond the words, the voices and the memories, the dreadful storm approaches from the sea of Suns and Moons.

Two strangers aid one other on a dark country road, vowing to meet again at the Renaissance Fair. To do so they must win past a host of fairy glammers, crazed role-players, angry jugglers, sinister bikers and the secret of the ancient charter of Strawberry Faire itself.
